

Jess Brittain

Represented by:

Alec Drysdale

Jess Brittain's original television series CLIQUE was developed with Balloon Entertainment for BBC Scotland, and broadcast by BBC Three in Spring 2017. The second series was released in 2018 with Jess writing all episodes and exec producing. She is currently developing the pilot episode for a book adaptation SISTER LAND with Expanded Media, an original drama with her brother Jamie Brittain for Motive Pictures, and a thriller pilot with Witchery Pictures. She also wrote an episode of the upcoming Apple series THE ESSEX SERPENT and THE CONFESSIONS OF FRANNIE LANGTON with Drama Republic for ITV. Jess joined the SKINS writers' room in 2012 and wrote two episodes of the sixth series as well as the opening two-parter of the seventh and final series in 2013.
