

Molly Manners

Director

Represented by:

Jessica Stewart

Molly Manners is a BAFTA Award winning director. Molly was the Lead Director on the hit adaptation of David Nicholls's novel One Day for Netflix / Drama Republic, for which she won an RTS Craft & Design Award. Before this, she directed the critically acclaimed second series of the coming-of-age comedy-drama In My Skin for BBC3 / Hulu. In My Skin Series 2 received 5-star reviews across the board, was listed in The New York Times Best Shows of 2021 and went on to win 5 BAFTAs in 2022 including the BAFTA for Best Drama Series and Best Writer and BAFTA Cymru for Best Drama, Best Writer and Best Director. The series also won Best Drama at RTS. Her debut feature, Extra Geography, produced by Brock Media & Film4 is now in post-production.

TELEVISION

DATE	PRODUCTION (ROLE)	COMPANY	PROJECT DETAILS
2023	ONE DAY	Drama Republic / Netflix	Lead director and associate producer RTS Craft & Design Award for Best Director - Scripted
2021	LAZY SUSAN	Tiger Aspect / BBC	Director of short form sketch series from the celebrated comedy double act.
2021	IN MY SKIN	Expectation / BBC	Director of the second series of the award winning comedy drama Won BAFTA for Best Drama Series Won BAFTA Cymru Award for Best Director: Fiction
2019	URBAN MYTH: ANDY AND THE DONALD	Merman / Sky Arts	Director of single TV film about Andy Warhol and Donald Trump

FEATURE FILM

DATE	PRODUCTION (ROLE)	COMPANY	PROJECT DETAILS
2025	EXTRA GEOGRAPHY	Brock Media / Film4	Director Written by Miriam Battye, adapted from the short story by Rose Tremain

SHORT FILM

DATE	PRODUCTION (ROLE)	COMPANY	PROJECT DETAILS
2016	HERE BOY	BFI, Creative England, Baby Cow, Big Talk, Amazon Prime	Short film. Director.
