Writer/Director

Represented by:

Jago Irwin

Andy Nyman is an award-winning actor, writer and director who has earned acclaim from both critics and audiences for his work in theatre, film and television. His most recent acting work in the theatre includes his Olivier nominated performance as Teyve in the West End production of Trevor Nunn's 'FIDDLER ON THE ROOF'. Andy's extensive film credits include his critically acclaimed performance as Dan in the Oscar winning Renee Zelwegger film JUDY. In 2010 Andy & Jeremy Dyson created the smash hit play GHOST STORIES, which Andy starred in as well as them both co-writing & co-directing. GHOST STORIES has now had three West End runs as well as productions being mounted all over the world. Last year saw the release of the film version of 'GHOST STORIES'. Like the play, the film was written and directed by Andy & Jeremy Dyson. Andy stars alongside Martin Freeman, Alex Lawther & Paul Whitehouse. The film has been hailed as a 'The Best British Horror Film for years' and a 'Modern Horror Classic'. Andy is also one of the co-writers and creators of the acclaimed TV shows Derren Brown - Mind Control & Trick of the Mind. He and the show won a Silver Rose at The 2003 Montreux Television Festival - one of the highest accolades any writer and Television programme can receive. He also co-wrote and co-directed 6 of Derren Brown's stage shows winning the 'Best Entertainment' Olivier Award for 'Derren Brown - Something Wicked This Way Comes' & the New York Drama Desk Award for 'Best Unique Theatrical Event 2017' for 'Derren Brown - Secret'. The show transferred to the Cort Theatre on Broadway in 2019. Andy's books 'The Golden Rules of Acting' & 'More Golden Rules of Acting' have become bestsellers within the acting world.
