

Giulia Gandini

Director/Writer

Represented by:

Francesca Devas

Giulia Gandini is a London-based writer/director originally from Italy. She is currently in prep on FRAUDS, a new drama for ITV. Giulia directed Part 1 & 2 of The Split: Barcelona for Sister Pictures / BBC1-after directing 3 x 60min eps of Shetland for Silverprint Pictures / BBC. Before that Giulia directed all 8 x 30min episodes of SHAKE, a modern retelling of Shakespeare's Othello for RAI, and the pilot episode of CABALA (6x25 min episodes), the urban-fantasy anthology series produced by Cattleya and Rai Fiction. Giulia also directed 2nd unit on new Sky action thriller THE LAZARUS PROJECT and was the director on the 3rd season of teen-drama TV series JAMS for Italian national state broadcaster RAI (20x25 min episodes). Her short film MY TIME was long-listed for the Academy Awards in 2020 and won a Young Director Award in Cannes 2020. Giulia graduated with an MA in Directing from MET Film School (Ealing Studios, London) and is represented for commercials by Snapper Films.
