SHOOTING BIGFOOT (Director / Producer)	Minnow Films / BBC Storyville / BFI	90' film  A fascinating and touching portrait of men who are obsessed with monsters and their adventures to find them  Premiered at Edinburgh Film Festival 2013
BRITAIN IN A DAY (Director / Producer)	Minnow Films / Scott Free Productions / BBC 2	1 x 90'  Tx Jun 2012  On Saturday 12th November 2011 an eclectic range of British people turned the camera on themselves, capturing the entertaining and mundane, the exciting and unusual, the poignant and the everyday. The result, Britain in a Day tells the fascinating story of the British public in their own words. Following on from the feature film Life in a Day, this film offers an extraordinarily candid look at 21st century life across the UK, crafted from over 750 hours of footage.  "the warp and weft of different lives were woven together to make something really wonderful. The craft and joy of this film was in the criss-crossing of singular and common experience" – The Guardian  Official Selection: Sheffield Documentary Film Festival 2012
SCENES FROM A TEENAGE KILLING (Director / Producer)	Minnow Films / BBC 4	1 x 120'  Tx 2011 with transmissions on BBC 3 & BBC 2  This film explores the impact of teenage killings on families and communities across Britain. It is a powerful and emotional journey that chronicles every teenager who died as a result of violence in 2009 across the UK  Nominated: BAFTA Best Single Documentary  Winner: Sheffield Documentary Festival Audience Award  "...once in a while, along comes a film that is so powerful and haunting that it seems to stop the world as you watch, leaving you struggling to enter the reality of unfolding life... such was the force of Scenes from a Teenage Killing. [Matthews] trained his camera with unjudgemental humanity and warmth. The result was thoroughly chilling." - The Observer  "In many ways Morgan Matthews's film is remarkable. Brave, intimate and instructive" - The Daily Telegraph

BATTLESHIP ANTARCTICA (Director / Producer) Minnow Films / Channel 4

1 x 50'

Tx Dec 2007

Morgan spent nearly two months filming with Greenpeace during their 2007 expedition to confront the Japanese whaling fleet in Antarctic waters. This journey through hostile seas and the beautiful frozen landscape takes an extraordinary turn when after weeks of searching, Greenpeace encounter their old adversaries in the most unexpected of circumstances

Nominated: Grierson, Sheffield Youth Jury Award

Official Selection: Sheffield Documentary Festival

Official Selection: Ecocinema, International Film Festival, Athens

"...an exquisitely shot documentary that, surprisingly given the subject matter, was often as funny as it was enlightening" - Gerard O'Donovan, The Daily Telegraph

"It's been said of this director that he always lets people's humanity shine through, no matter how off-beam or out of order their own lives are. He certainly did a good number on Greenpeace" - Matt Baylis, Daily Express

CAREHOUSE

Century Films / BBC 4

1 x 94'

Tx May 2003

An observational documentary about a controversial care home in York. All residents at the Cusick's care home have learning difficulties and challenging behaviour. Many have been diagnosed as 'untreatable psychopaths', yet under the care of the Cusick's, their behaviour has improved dramatically. Six months spent living at the care home produced an emotional and intimate film about a group of people marginalised by society.
