

Lucy Robinson

Producer

Lucy joined Sony Pictures Entertainment as SVP of Original Content in August 2022 to grow their international studios division, building a slate of premium television series by partnering with A list talent (actors, showrunners and directors). Lucy was part of the management team that negotiated Sony's first look co-production deal with The Guardian Media Group. Prior to that from March 2020, Lucy was Creative Director of Stolen Picture, Simon Pegg and Nick Frost's production company, overseeing their development slate and shepherding into production - Black Cab, a film for Shudder/AMC and Transaction, a comedy series for ITV which will begin shooting in 2024.

From 2017 Lucy was VP of Original Content for Comedy Central and Paramount International Networks, commissioning and overseeing Comedy Central's original TV series, as well its scripted shortform digital content, and developing original international drama series for the launch of Paramount +. As an executive producer / series producer, Lucy's many credits in drama and comedy include BAFTA winner and RTS Nominee mini series Born to Kill for World Productions / Channel Four, Confessions of A Diary Secretary for Daybreak/ITV, May Contain Nuts for Tiger Aspect / ITV, Hustle Series 3 for Kudos/BBC, The Wrong Mans for BBC, Perfect World for Tiger Aspect /BBC, The Eleven O'Clock Show for Channel 4, as well as three series of Pramface, which she produced through her own company, Little Comet in partnership with BBC Studios.
